Once a little mouse went out for a walk. After a while he came back to his mother and said:

“Oh, Mom, I saw two beasts, one of them was very nice, while another one looked terrible”

“What kind of beasts were they?” – mother asked him.

“A terrible one walks back and forth in the yard so snippy! His legs are black, his coat is red, his eyes are bulging, and his nose is crooked! When I was passing by, it lifted one of his legs and opened his beak wide and yelled horribly! I was frightened so much and lost completely.”

“Oh, sonny, it was just a cock! Why should you be so scared of him? He is harmless for us. And what about a nice one?”

“A nice one was lying in the sun. His neck is white, very smooth, his paws are brown. He was tonguing his dugs, wagging a tail lazily, and staring at me all the time.”

“Oh, so naive you are! But it was a cat! Beware of him!” – said mother to her little mouse.

There is a saying: some of them may look like the Sun, but their mind can be very dark.
